Accreditation form For
The European Mediation Training Scheme for Practitioners of Justice
EMTPJ - 2011

The Association for International Arbitration, together with the HUB University of Brussels, have created the mediation project titled “The European Mediation Training Scheme for Practitioners of Justice” (EMTPJ). Having received a grant from the EU Commission, this mediation scheme follows the guidelines established on the European Commission directive on mediation and will enable effective cross border mediation.

By completing the following form of recognition, your mediation institute agrees to include your name amongst the list of associated members that will accept mediator applications participants that have completed the EMTPJ course. In cooperating with AIA, you will be listed and marketed on the EMTPJ website, subsequently allowing you to receive an increased number of cross-border mediation appointments. By providing your contract information and signature, you will gain official status as an associated institution of the EMPTJ project. Please refer to the course outline and annexes for further information regarding the course content, logistics, and procedures.
